The Programs & Membership Committee works to coordinate the LABC's regular and special events. The Committee helps to recruit strategic speakers, panelists and special guests that enhance the content and quality of each event. Committee members develop and approve new program ideas for breakfast events, roundtables, forums and summits that advocate for positive change in the Los Angeles region. This Committee is also directly responsible for all aspects of new member recruitment and existing member retention and maintaining the strength of the base membership of the LABC. The Programs & Membership Committee is responsible for nominating the annual slate of LABC Officers and Committee Chairs for presentation to the Executive Board. At this meeting, we will be welcoming our new 2018-2019 members with lunch and a quick update on the upcoming events, followed by networking.
